Shales

«The Saint Chinianai, a land of wines!
The vineyard extends on both sides of the Orb, ckd by the Caroux and Espinouse mountains. Under a hot and dry climate, shales (in the north) and limestone (in the south) give the best reception to the vine where the syrah takes pride of place among the other grape varieties of the appellation. Cultivated by a passionate woman, not far from the village of Cazedarnes, the vine expresses this exceptional terroir.»

Traditional vivification

Distinguished, this wine perfectly expresses the St Chinian soil. A deep colour with nice dark violet reflections. A nose of sweet spices, fine garrigue nuances (thyme, rosemary) and wild strawberries fragrances. The mouth is elegant, round and certainly tasty... Just wonderful..

Serve this wine with a rack of lamb and you will spend a delicious moment.
